

The Lyric News: The Lyric Presents its Inaugural Season at Midtown in Palm Beach Gardens

October 2008

Palm Beach Gardens, FL. – We are pleased to announce The Lyric Theatre's inaugural season of programming at the community of Midtown in Palm Beach Gardens. On site at Midtown is the Theater at the Borland Center, a wonderful new performance venue. The Lyric will present six new shows from November through April at the Borland. Livingston Taylor, The Kingston Trio, Asleep at the Wheel, Get Back! – the Cast of Beatlemania, the CutTime Players Chamber Ensemble, and Colin Hay.

Through these performances at the Borland Center, we will expand the Lyric's programming and audience outreach to the Palm Beaches. This affiliation also gives us the flexibility to book additional shows that the Lyric's increasingly tight schedule may not be free to accommodate.

Tickets for all Midtown shows are available on the Lyric web site at www.lyrictheatre.com, or by calling the Lyric box office at 772-286-7827.

We invite you to visit Midtown and the Borland Center for one of this year's performances – and plan to stay for dinner. With several excellent restaurants on site, this is an ideal location for an entertaining evening out. Midtown at Palm Beach Gardens is located on PGA Boulevard between I-95 and Florida's Turnpike.
