

MIDTOWN TO HOST 3rd ANNUAL ART IN THE GARDENS IN PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL

WHAT: Midtown, a new village-like, blended-use community in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., will host the 3rd annual Art in the Gardens, a fun, free cultural arts event that will feature 100 regional artists from Southeast Florida displaying their unique work. Live entertainment, children's activities including a youth art showcase from 42 area schools, street performers and a wide variety of popular cuisines from local restaurants will make this event enjoyable and memorable for all who attend.

WHEN: Saturday and Sunday, November 22-23, 2008
10 a.m. – 5 p.m.

WHERE: Main Street at Midtown
4655 PGA Boulevard
Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

COST: Free

PARKING: Free self parking is available onsite and complimentary shuttle service is available from offsite lots. Just follow signs for offsite parking locations near Midtown.

INFO: Call (561) 691-8507, or visit www.artigras.org/artinthegardens

WHO: Midtown, a Ram property, is a new village-like, blended-use community with all the conveniences and style of cosmopolitan living. Located on PGA Boulevard just west of Military Trail, the development consists of 97,000 square feet of high-end retail, restaurant and office space, a 500-seat cultural center and a 300-seat banquet hall, all within walking distance of its 225 luxury condominiums. For more information about Midtown, visit www.midtownpga.com.

Art in the Gardens is produced by ArtiGras. For more information, contact the North Palm Beach County Chamber of Commerce at (561) 748-3946, or visit www.artigras.org.

CONTACT:

Heidi Armstrong or Bryna Jacobs
Thorp & Company
(305) 446-2700
harmstrong@thorpco.com
bjacobs@thorpco.com